In paragraph #, what does [character] mean when she says, “X?”	On page 295 paragraph 1, what does Geraldine mean what she says, “There was a lot of me in that rug. I wanted it to be perfect.”?	Geraldine says, “There was a lot of me in that rug. I wanted it to be perfect.” Geraldine meant that her wool (mohair) was used to make the rug. This made her feel connected to the work and proud to be part of it. Because she was connected to the work, she wanted the rug to be perfect.
