Possible Exemplary Response:

The sentence, “Even here in the Underworld, everybody—even monsters—needed a little attention once in a while,” shows that Percy starts to think differently about the beings he meets after his encounter with Cerebrus. Percy recognizes that everyone and everything experiences similar emotions. Cerberus just wanted to play ball and have someone pay attention to him. It changes the tone of the story by making you feel sorry for Cerebrus when you started out by being afraid of him.
