W.6.1 Write arguments to support claims with clear reasons and relevant evidence.

2016 Stem used: How does the relationship between [character] and [character] change? Use two details from the story to support your response.

1. How does the relationship between Percy and Ares change in chapter 20? Use two details from the story to support your response.

Possible Exemplary Response:

The relationship between Percy and Ares changes during chapter 20. In earlier chapters, Ares had Percy recover his shield and rewarded him with money and a backpack. It appeared that he was supporting Percy's quest. During chapter 20, however, Percy realizes that Ares placed Zeus's lightning bolt in the backpack and was trying to start a war between the gods. A fight ensues in which Percy is the victor and Ares is wounded. Before Ares disappears, he states, "You have made an enemy, godling. You have sealed your fate. Every time you raise your blade in battle, every time you hope for success, you will feel my curse. Beware, Perseus Jackson. Beware." The two are now enemies.
