Mixed emotions about how I feel about racial injustices and the tragic deaths of George Floyd Breonna Taylor and more.

My emotion about the George Floyd racial injustices is he didn’t deserve what happened to him because I believe he did everything the police said and he was not doing anything wrong. The police didn’t have no rights to be putting his knee over his neck you can hear him say he can’t breathe he was not being aggressive you can see he was falling over and was having trouble breathing but proceeded to apply pressure to his neck.

The police are here to protect us at all times but me being a black male it scares me so who do I trust.

This is my emotions about how I feel about the racial injustices.
