

Framed Paragraph Examples

Example for a simple book report:

Title _____

I read the book _____, and would say _____
_____. It taught me three things about _____.

First of all, I learned that _____. I know this because the book says _____

_____. I also learned _____
_____.

Finally, I found out _____. I know this because
_____.

I am glad that I learned about _____ _____ by reading this book.

Dogs that Visit

I read the book Rosie: A Visiting Dog's Story and I would say that it is very interesting. It taught me three things about dogs that visit sick or elderly people.

First of all, I learned that dogs cheer people up. I know this because the book says that Rosie made a man in a nursing home smile when he hadn't smiled for a long time. I also learned that visiting dogs have to be very well trained and get a bath before each visit.

Finally, I found out that people will talk to dogs and hug them even if they do not want to talk to or hug a person. I know this because in the book an older woman was crying and she started to talk to Rosie about why she was sad.

I am glad that I learned about visiting dogs
by reading this book.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Framed Paragraph Practice

Title _____

I know many things about _____

_____. To begin, _____

_____. Next, _____

_____. Last, _____

_____. I am glad that I learned about _____.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Framed Paragraph

Our Field Trip to _____

I had a great time at _____ and I liked learning about _____

_____. It was easy to pay attention because _____.

Now I know more about _____

_____.

My drawing—a good memory of our field trip!

