ATTENTION TEACHING ASSISTANTS & TEACHER AIDES
BECOME THE TEACHER YOU ALWAYS KNEW YOU COULD BE!

The Buffalo Urban Teacher Pipeline Residency Program is a collaboration between SUNY Buffalo State and the Buffalo Public Schools, with funding through the office of Assembly Majority Leader Crystal People-Stokes.

STEPS FOR ADMISSION

1. BY APRIL 15 - Email to indicate interest in program: teacherpipeline@buffalostate.edu.
2. Directors respond with program details and steps.
3. BY MAY 15 - Submit application & materials.
4. Interview with program staff.

Competitive / Space Limited

FINANCES & SUPPORT

- Take two classes per semester at no cost (includes fees and books)
- Complete state-mandated workshops, certification exams, and test preparation at no cost
- Receive guidance and support from program staff and mentor teachers in partner schools

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

- 2.75 overall grade point average
- Current employment as assistant or aide in Buffalo Public Schools
- Email of interest followed by completed application
- Official transcripts from all colleges attended
- Essays of intent and interest
- Two professional references
- Interview with program staff

DEGREES

- Childhood Education (Grades 1-6) B.S.
- Early Childhood Education (Birth-Grade 2), B.S.
- Childhood Education Initial Teaching Certification (Grades 1-6), M.S.Ed.
- Science Education, M.S.Ed.
- Students with Disabilities Generalist (Grades 7-12), M.S.Ed.

RECRUITING FOR FALL 2022 COHORT!
EMAIL BY APRIL 15
APPLY BY MAY 15

PROGRAM STAFF

Kathy Wood, Associate Dean, School of Education
Hilary Lochte, Program Director (Graduate)
Sandra Washington-Copeland, Program Director (Undergraduate)

teacherpipeline@buffalostate.edu