

Joy Lane

Math Reads – Book Review

Title: A Million Dots
Grade: 4	Author: Andrew Clements

Topic(s): Multiplication & Estimation

Standard(s): Operations & Algebraic Thinking / Number & Operations in Base 10

Mathematical Practice(s): Reason abstractly & quantitatively

Vocabulary: diameter, estimate, million, powers of 10

Examine the Lesson Ideas: Determine + “pluses” – ideas to keep/ideas you like and determine Δ “deltas” – ideas to change/ideas you do not like
+	Δ
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>→ Intro pages → really explains what one million looks like</li> <li>→ Intro Lesson to lesson Module 1.</li> <li>→ how many left to get to a million</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>use grid paper to continue adding dot number</li> <li>→ connect w/ Art lesson</li> <li>→ Create class book on million number study</li> <li>-assign number &amp; find a fact about it.</li> </ul>

Summary:

The dot in the picture matches the dot number in the caption

---

---