This information comes from
American Academy of Pediatrics en https://www.aap.org
Centers for Disease Control and Prevention en https://www.cdc.gov/
and is funded by the District’s My Brother’s Keeper Initiative.
Cognitive Development

- If your child is not talking by 18 months old, consult with your pediatrician.
- If your child is not talking by 24 months old, consult with your pediatrician.
- If your child is not talking by 30 months old, consult with your pediatrician.
- If your child is not talking by 36 months old, consult with your pediatrician.
- If your child is not talking by 42 months old, consult with your pediatrician.
- If your child is not talking by 48 months old, consult with your pediatrician.

Fine Motor Development

- Ask your pediatrician if your child is doing the following:
  - Sitting up without support
  - Crawling
  - Pulling to stand
  - Walking alone
  - Running
  - Picking up small objects
  - Drawing a line

This information comes from American Academy of Pediatrics
and is funded by the District’s My Brother’s Keeper Initiative.