This information comes from American Academy of Pediatrics enhttps://www.aap.org Centers for Disease Control and Prevention enhttps://www.cdc.gov/ and is funded by the District’s My Brother’s Keeper Initiative.
Cognitive Motor (gross motor)
- The child is slow in performing basic tasks.
- The child has difficulty understanding instructions.
- The child has difficulty copying simple shapes.
- The child has difficulty using scissors.
- The child has difficulty using a laptop or computer.

Fine Motor
- The child has difficulty holding a pencil or pen.
- The child has difficulty using a spoon or fork.
- The child has difficulty using a toothbrush.
- The child has difficulty using a knife.
- The child has difficulty using a drill or screwdriver.

This information comes from American Academy of Pediatrics en https://www.aap.org and is funded by the District’s My Brother’s Keeper Initiative.