

Health Education
Leonardo daVinci
2013-2014
Stephen Litwin
716-816-4380
Email: slitwin@buffaloschools.org

OBJECTIVE

The purpose of this class is to learn and promote strong physical, social, and mental well-being of the student. It is designed to raise awareness of various issues that are pertinent to the young, maturing adult. We will discuss wellness, preventative health and safety measures.

CURRICULUM

- Personal health
- Drug awareness
- Tobacco awareness
- Alcohol dangers
- Preventive measures for safety
- Mental illness
- Sexually transmitted infections
- AIDS/HIV
- Nutrition
- Reduce the Risks

GRADING PROCEDURES

- Notebook—20%
- Tests, quizzes and papers—60% OR
- Quarterly project and quizzes will be - 60%
- Class participation—20% - teacher observation

REQUIREMENTS

- Notebook or folder to keep all handouts and written notes accessible for quarterly notebook checks.
- A three-ring binder is also acceptable to manage all notes and handouts. I request a separate notebook or binder for class not to be shared with other academic subjects, as they will be collected and not returned possibly for 3-5 days.
- All projects/ papers to be typed following the set standard for papers at Leonardo daVinci High School. No hand written papers/projects. No exceptions

- Examples of standard for papers at Leonardo daVinci High School will be handed out to each student and required to be followed.
- Late papers and/or projects lose 10 points for each day late. After 3 days late, if paper/ project are turned in, the grade is a 50.