

How to Connect VDI (VMware Desktop) or STEM VDI from Home

1. From the Desktop, open the VMWare Horizon Client:

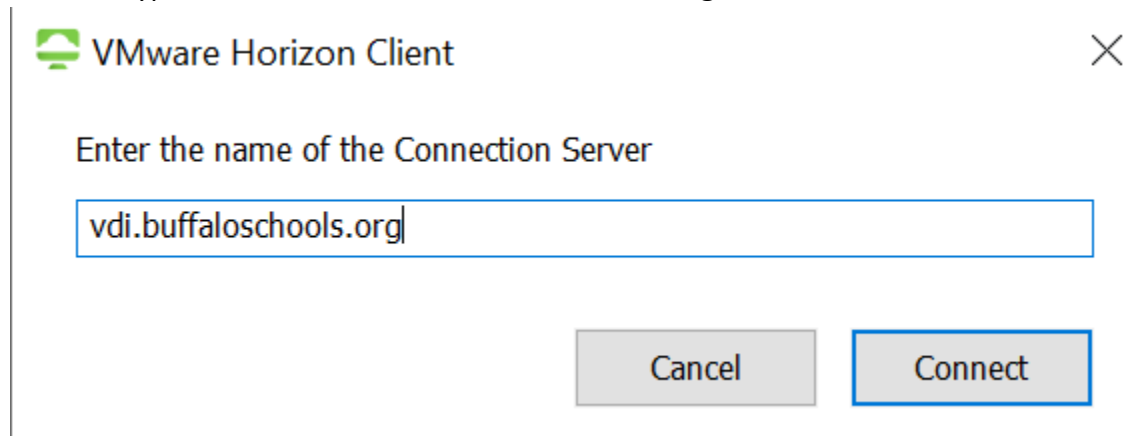

- a.
2. Double Click on Add Server:

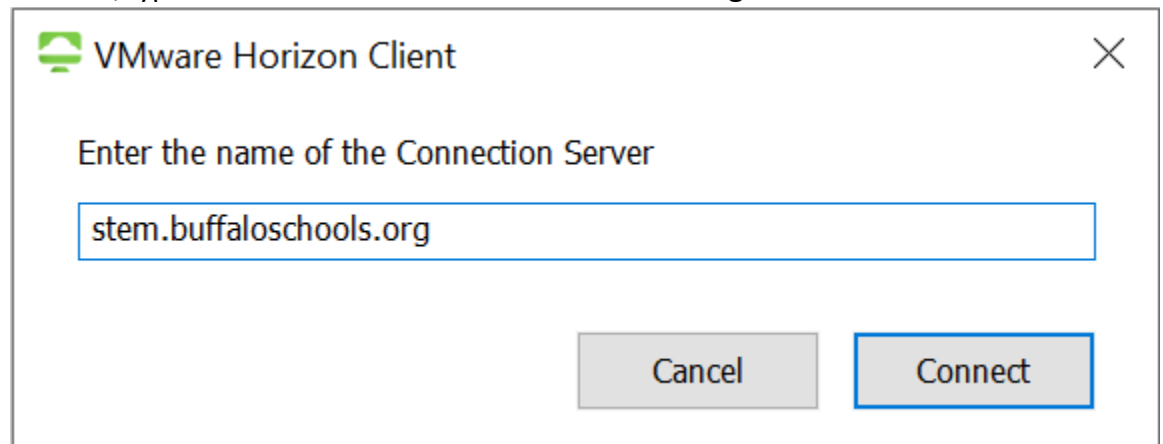

- a.

3. For normal VDI, type in the address of vdi.buffaloschools.org

The screenshot shows the VMware Horizon Client window titled "VMware Horizon Client". It contains a text input field with the text "vdi.buffaloschools.org" and two buttons: "Cancel" and "Connect".

- a.
4. For a STEM VDI, type in the address of stem.buffaloschools.org

The screenshot shows the VMware Horizon Client window titled "VMware Horizon Client". It contains a text input field with the text "stem.buffaloschools.org" and two buttons: "Cancel" and "Connect".

- a.
5. Enter you User name and Password:

The screenshot shows the VMware Horizon Client window titled "Login". It contains four fields: "Server:" with the value "https://stem.buffaloschools.org", "User name:" with the value "User_Name", "Password:" with masked characters "••••••••", and "Domain:" with the value "*DefaultDomain*". There are two buttons: "Cancel" and "Login".

- a.
6. Double click on the VDI Pool that is listed:

- a.
7. The VDI desktop will launch within a few minutes.
8. If any error messages occur during the log in process, please reboot the device and try again.