The book, Fancy Nancy and the Posh Poodle, by Jane O'Connor, tells the story of a young girl named Nancy who loves to be fancy. Nancy loves to wear fancy dresses, shoes and headbands. In addition, Nancy likes to use fancy words. For example, she says that she is ecstatic, which is a fancy word that means very happy. Nancy is ecstatic because her family is getting a dog. There is one problem, though. No one else in Nancy's family is fancy. Her sister and her parents don't want a fancy dog. In the end, they choose a dog that is playful but has a fancy-sounding name – Frenchy!
