

► Read the Vocabulary Words. Think of things that you know about volcanoes as you look at the picture. Write the Vocabulary Word that best completes each sentence.

brunch omelet peaceful erupting lava escape

1. The volcano was _____.
2. Hot _____ was running down its side.
3. People got in their cars to _____.
4. The volcano stops erupting. Now the day is _____.

5. We ate an for _____.

To the Teacher: Read aloud the directions and the Vocabulary Words. Then have students repeat the words after you. Talk about the picture with students, encouraging them to describe the scene using the Vocabulary Words. Ask them about any experience or knowledge they may have about volcanoes. Read aloud the first item, and guide students to complete the sentence. Ask them to draw a rebus picture of an omelet to complete the final sentence.

- Read the story from the school paper. Then circle the letter of the answer that best completes each sentence.

Third Grade News

Debate at Science Fair

Alvin Thomas is the first-place winner at the Science Fair. He made a model of a volcano. Everyone liked the volcano except Jeannie Ward. She was the second-place winner. She said the lava did not look hot enough. Jeannie said she is never wrong. Everyone who listened to Jeannie thought she was just jealous.

- 1 Alvin Thomas _____ first place.

A one
B won

Tip
Which answer means
was a winner?

- 2 Jeannie Wards said she is always _____.

A right
B write

Tip
Which answer means correct?

- 3 Everybody _____ Jeannie complain.

A herd
B heard

Tip
Which answer means something ears did?

To the Teacher: Discuss the picture with students, having them read aloud each story word. Then read the story aloud with students. Make sure students understand that words that may sound alike may not necessarily have the same meanings and are often spelled differently. Read the first tip, and have partners discuss what the sentence means. Guide students in completing the items. Have them use each of the word pairs in an oral sentence to show their meanings.