I am on a nostop flight from New York to California. It is amazing that we don't have to stop to refill the fuel tanks along the way. The flight attendant brought me some nonfatt milk and crackers. I ordered my own snack, and I felt very independant. It is a long flight, so I will have plenty of time to rethink our vacation plans, rereed an old magazine, and retele my favorite story. We plan to return in two weeks.
