

Directions: 115 words completely in Spanish. Proper names, places and numeric numbers do not count into the word count. Pay close attention to your grammar and sentence structure.

31 You are writing an article for your Spanish class newspaper about one or more aspects of your school that you would like to change. In Spanish, write about one or more aspects of your school that you would like to change. You may wish to include:

- the school day
- courses offered
- athletic program
- performing arts — dance, theater, music
- lunchtime options
- students' rights and responsibilities
- homework

organize
I talk about school
II Changes
III Plan for changing

32 You have received a letter from your former Spanish host mother asking you what your plans are for the next school year in the United States. In Spanish, write a letter to your former host mother telling her what your plans are for the next school year in the United States. You may wish to include:

- academic goals
- plans for leisure and extracurricular activities
- volunteer work
- community service
- work during the week
- family responsibilities

I talk about this year
II Talk about next year
classes
III activities / clubs