

Short Answer Constructed Response for "Home"

- 13 How does the speaker's changing perception of the setting affect the way the speaker feels over the course of the poem? Use two details from the poem to support your answer.

Write your answer in complete sentences.

At the beginning of the poem, the speaker feels calm about his home. He gets scared because there is a woman sitting in his chair. This changes his perception of the setting because he went from relaxed to frantic. In the passage it states, "to the long chair and firelight and comfortable gloom" (lines 3 – 4). It also states, "I stood a moment fierce and still" (line 11). That shows that he was scared.

Extended Constructed Response Paired Passages

- 14 Describe how the main character of "The Quest of the Silver Fleece" and the speaker of "Home" feel initially and how each one's feelings change over time.

In your response, be sure to do the following:

- describe how the character in "The Quest of the Silver Fleece" feels at the beginning of his journey and how his feelings change
- describe how the speaker in "Home" feels upon returning home and how the speaker's feelings change
- describe similarities and/or differences in the change of feelings experienced in both passages
- use details from both passages in your response
